Ethiopia: [The army forces loyal to Emperor Haile Selassie control Addis Ababa and have been mopping up isolated rebel bands. The city is without many public services. Several coup leaders, however, have escaped capture. The slaying by the coup leaders of a large number of hostages--including the ministers of defense, of commerce and industry, and of public works and communications--is expected to lead to reprisals. Already a large number of students who had demonstrated in favor of the rebels have been rounded up and reportedly many have been shot. The Crown Prince was among those present at the Emperor's arrival in Addis Ababa. Haile Selassie made a point of requesting the presence of the US ambassador, to whom he spoke with warm regard.]
